In the interest of harmony, how would Hon. J. F. Hinkle and Judge U. S. Bateman do for delegates to the constitutional convention?

The Republicans of Chaves county are preparing to call a county convention, but it is understood that only part of a ticket will be nominated.

Judge Richardson having declared himself out of the race for delegate to the constitutional convention, it is up to the Chaves county Democrats to select two men who are in favor of joint statehood, and the Register-Tribune will have to guess again.

The Record had hoped that Judge Richardson would go to Santa Fe to attend the Democratic Territorial committee meeting and capture the delegate convention for Roswell. But both the Chaves county members were detained by important business at home, and sent proxies.

No. 1, Volume 1, of the Home Evangel, published at Roswell by Rev. Charles E. Lukens, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church in that city, has reached the New Mexican. It is an illustrated, eight page monthly, printed on good paper and devoted to the interests of "the homeless children and the childless homes of New Mexico and Arizona," as Dr. Lukens puts it, and to which cause he has decided to devote himself in the future.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Las Vegas is greatly stirred up over a proposition to make saloon license, in some cases, prohibitory, and in considering the question the Optic says: "It is very certain that the ordinance to compel saloon keepers who have music in their establishments to pay a thousand dollar license will be called up again. There is no room for doubt as to the attitude of a very large majority of the citizens of Las Vegas on this point. They want the screaming advertisement of Las Vegas as a wide open town done away with, and they believe that the high license will be sufficient to accomplish that end."

"Last week there appeared in these columns a statement showing that the indebtedness of New Mexico is really smaller than that of Arizona, instead of being two or three times larger, vide the assertions of those interested parties and newspapers opposing so violently union of the two territories in statehood. Comparison of the county indebtedness of the two territories shows that the anti-unionites are about as far from the truth on that head, as on the items of territorial indebtedness. Another point: The reports of the two governors cited in these columns show that in the year covered New Mexico reduced her debt more than one hundred thousand dollars, while that of Arizona increased about twenty thousand dollars.—Nogales (Ariz.) Oasis.

NAME SUGGESTS IT.

"La Cronica" is the name of a new weekly newspaper published at Logan, Union county, on the Rock Island. It is Democratic in politics and N. Faustina Gallegos, editor of El Fenix, at Clayton, is the publisher and manager. La Cronica is opposed to joint statehood and says so in the following words: "We will never vote joint statehood with Arizona, for we believe and know that we are entitled to the union by ourselves, and with our dear name New Mexico."—Springer Stockman.

Setting aside the Spanish meaning of the word, La Cronica is a suggestive name.

LEST WE FORGET.

Watch the politicians carefully, and see to it that members of the Otero gang do not get into the legislature this fall. The Otero leaders are making a fuss over statehood matters, in an effort to keep attention away from their real object—the control of the next legislature. It is known that Governor Hagerman will ask for a number of good laws, and the repeal of many of the grafts now held by members of the old gang. It is the intention of the Otero leaders to refuse all reform legislation, and pass such measures as will lead to the embarrassment of the Hagerman administration. At the same time they will refuse to confirm any of the Hagerman appointments, hoping to keep their men in office that way. As long as Hagerman continues in the straight path, and desires to give the people of the Territory an honest administration, he is deserving of the support of all good citizens, and every attempt of the Oterotes to obstruct reforms should be defeated by the voters.—Albuquerque Advertiser (Democratic.)

While agreeing with the New Mexico Republicans in favor of joint statehood, it is well enough to bear in mind the real object of the old gang organs that were so suddenly converted to the cause. The joint statehood sand will not hide them.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK LEADS.

Ahead of All New Mexico Institutions on Roll of Honor.

The Financier, of New York, which issues a supplement, denominated the "Roll of Honor," in its sixteenth annual issue places the First National Bank of Roswell first for New Mexico and 79th in the entire system of National banks of the United States. Another Pecos Valley bank, the First National at Carlsbad is second in the Territory, but 476th in the entire system. The Roll of Honor contains a statement of the surplus and undivided profits in excess of capital of 810 banks, prepared from the report of the Comptroller of the Currency. The relative positions numerically are determined by the percentages of increase during the year. The percentage of surplus and undivided profits to capital of the First National Bank is placed at 258.98. The percentage of gain for the year is 49.56. The figures given in the Roll of Honor are: Capital, $50,000; surplus and undivided profit, $129,490. The First National advanced from the rank 127 in one year to 79. Other banks in New Mexico have more capital, and one or two have larger deposits, but none of them show the profits and surplus carried by the First National of Roswell. A recent statement, April 6th, of this bank showed deposits of $781,674.30, with loans and discounts of $538,448.92, and surplus and undivided profits $146,455.10

Since the condition of the banks is one of the best indexes to the prosperity of the community, it is evident that Roswell and the Pecos Valley are the best portions of New Mexico, the First National of Roswell and the First National at Carlsbad heading the roll of honor so far as New Mexico is concerned.
